

Chief Judge

Contest Checklist

About this checklist:

The Chief Judge and Team are responsible for ensuring that the contest judging and timing and the processing and tabulation of completed Contest Judge ballots is performed fairly and accurately. Taking on the Chief Judge role in a contest is both challenging and exhilarating! The myriad of details that go into ensuring fair and accurate judging can be overwhelming. This becomes manageable by keeping track of what needs to be done and when. Hence this checklist.

Why put all this effort into a contest? Because everyone gains! You become even better at managing and motivating a team and helping organize and deliver an event with lots of moving parts. The contestants gain valuable – long lasting – knowledge and experience crafting and delivering their speeches and seeing how they do relative to the other contestants. The audience members enjoy the experience of listening to some – hopefully – memorable speeches and may decide to enter future competitions.

All the forms and certificates referenced in this checklist are available as digital downloads here <http://www.ewolving.com/toastmastersTIC.php>.

Note: This checklist conforms to the latest TI Speech Contest Rule Book but is NOT a replacement for it. The TI Speech Contest Rule Book must be your primary reference guide.

Tie Breaking Judge

- Appointed by the Chief Judge.
- The Tie Breaking judge must be a member in good standing.
- The identity of the Tie Breaking Judge should only be known to the Chief Judge.
- The duty of the Tie Breaking Judge is to rank ALL contestants numerically on the Tie Breaking Judge's Ballot.
- Upon completion of the ballot the Tie Breaking Judge will submit the – signed – ballot (sealed in an envelope) to the Chief Judge, who will open and count it only in the event of a tie by the Contest Judges.
- In the event of a tie in any of the top three places, the contestant who ranks higher on the Tie Breaking Judge's Ballot will be awarded the contested place; the other tying contestant will be awarded the next lower place. No place higher than the tying position will be affected. (Example, if the tie occurs in second place, the tying contestant ranking higher on the Tie Breaking Judge's Ballot will be awarded second place. Ballot Counters

- Three Ballot Counters are appointed by the Chief Judge.
- At the conclusion of the contest speeches the ballot counters will collect the sealed ballots from the Contest Judges. The Ballot Counters and Chief Judge will proceed to the room/area designated for processing the ballots and tabulating the results. The Ballot Counters will post each speaker's points on the Counter's Tally Sheet previously prepared for that purpose. Counters will count all ballots twice to insure accuracy.
- In posting the points, counters will give three points for first place, two points for second place, and one point for third place. Any ballot which does not specifically designate first, second, and third places, or which does not contain the names of three speakers, or is not signed by a designated contest judge cannot be counted.

Planning and Preparation:

The Contest Chair and Chief Judge roles are the two most important roles. The Chief Judge and team (Contest Judges, Timers, Ballot Counters) are responsible for ensuring that the judging, timing and processing and tabulation of completed Contest Judge ballots is performed fairly and accurately.

- Notification of Contest Winner

Contestant Timing:

The Timing lights OR Green-Yellow-Red Timing cards should be placed so that...

1 - The contestants can easily see them, but

2 – The Judges should not be able to see them (so they are not influenced by the possibility of a speaker going over time. Judges should be focused solely on judging the contestant speech performances.)

- Obtain Timing lights OR Green-Yellow-Red Timing cards (If Timing Lights are your primary time indicator then have a set of Green-Yellow-Red Timing cards as backup in case the Timing lights fail)
- Obtain stop-watch or Timing App on smartphone

In the days leading up to the contest:

Email the Contest Judges the Speech Contest Rulebook, Judge's Certification of Eligibility and the Judge's Guide and Ballot. Ask the Contest Judges to review the appropriate portion of the Speech Contest Rulebook for that contest and the Judge's Guide and Ballot and to print, fill in and bring the – signed – Judge's Certification of Eligibility form to the contest.

20 minutes prior to contest starting:

Brief the Contest Judges, Timers and Ballot Counters

- Verify that all Contest Judges have provided you with a signed Judge's Certification of Eligibility form.
- Provide each Contest Judge with one envelope and instruct them that when the the Contest Chair asks them to complete their ballot they should do so and then put their completed – signed – ballot in the envelope, seal it, write their name on the front of the envelope and hand it to one of the Ballot Counters.
- Review the Time Record Sheet and Instructions for Timers with the Timers.
- Review the Judge's Guide and Ballot with the Contest Judges.

Review Counters' Tally Sheet with the Ballot Counters.

During the contest:

A few minutes after the contest starts...

The Contest Chair will Ask You: "Chief Judge, have the contest judges, timers and ballot counters been briefed and are we ready to proceed with the contest?" The Contest Chair will wait for an affirmative reply from you.

After the last contestant speech the Contest Chair will state: "May we please have silence until all the ballots have been collected? Judges, please hold your ballots up when you have completed them."

You and the Ballot Counters will now collect the ballots as they are completed by the Contest Judges.

After all the ballots have been collected - proceed to the room/area chosen for processing the Contest Judge's ballots and tabulating the results. Fill in the Results Form and ensure that the Calligrapher writes the correct name on each of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place Certificates.

Note: While a protest is very rare - this is the most likely time for it to be lodged. It must be dealt with immediately. Protest can only be based on eligibility and speech originality and must be lodged with the Chief Judge and Contest Chair only by another contestant or by a judge. (See the section titled 'Protests and Disqualifications' in the Toastmasters International Speech Contest Rule Book.)

As soon as you have completed the Results Form and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place Certificates - proceed back to the contest room and present the Contest Chair with these items.

Contest Wrap Up Paperwork:

Complete the Notification of Contest Winners form and send it to the next contest level...

Club Contest – send to Area Director

Area Contest – send to Division Director

Division Contest – send to District Chief Judge

Rodney G. Denno, DTM

Since late 2006 I've spent a lot of time in the laboratory that is Toastmasters! It's a wonderful place to develop new skills and hone existing ones.

Through the years I've served in most of the club officer roles multiple times and as Area and Division Director, District 21 Public Relations Officer and District 21 Communications & Technology Officer. In 2008 I led the effort to create and deliver the first Online Club Officer Training program in the Toastmaster world.

While I was busy learning, enjoying myself and giving back to Toastmasters I received the two highest Toastmasters honors in District 21 (the province of British Columbia, Canada) - the 2009 Rookie of the Year Award and the 2010 Outstanding Toastmaster of the Year Award.

I believe that in order for a society to grow and prosper we must give back more than we take. Over the years I've volunteered whatever time I could to various non-profit organizations. Since 2006 my volunteer efforts have been focused, through Toastmasters, on the development of leadership and communications skills in the almost 6,000 Toastmasters throughout British Columbia.

My first book Evaluation Maven Manifesto 2.0 – the art and science of great speech evaluations - was published in February 2013 <http://www.ewolving.com/toastmastersEMM.php>

I write about whatever I'm involved with in Toastmasters so I can share it with other Toastmasters and hopefully make their Toastmasters journey more enjoyable and valuable to them and to the Toastmasters organization worldwide.

Here are some of the areas I've written about over the years:
